Professional career

Christian M. Reiser enjoys a long-standing reputation in the fields of Corporate law and Commercial law. He has extensive experience in civil law, in particular inheritance law, and regularly advises lawyers on rules governing the legal profession.

Christian M. Reiser's extensive commercial practice covers the creation, administration and liquidation of companies, as well as their representation in court proceedings, whether of a civil or criminal nature. He has also acted as counsel and as arbitrators in numerous domestic and international commercial arbitration proceedings.

These activities have led him to advise company directors, and many other clients, in relation to various legal aspects of their private lives, including estate planning.

Christian Reiser acted as the president of the Geneva Supervisory Authority for Lawyers for four years, and was active within this supervisory body for many more (2002-2010). In doing so, he has acquired a thorough knowledge of the rules, authorizations and disciplinary sanctions.

Christian M. Reiser started his career as an associate for Me Gabriel C. Oltramare. He was one of the four founding partners of the law firm Oltramare, Hochstaetter, Eardley & Reiser, set up in 1981, which later became OHER Avocats. He co-founded REISER Avocats in 2019.
